

Conference programme

Challenging Positions in Disability Research
- normativity, knowledge and praxis

The 10th NNDR conference
April 2. – 4., 2009, in Nyborg, Denmark.

Thursday April 2.

- 10.00 - Registration at Nyborg Strand
- 11.30 - 12.45 Lunch
- 13.00 - 13.45 Welcome and opening Theatre by Limfjordskolen
- 14.00 - 15.00 'The Contractualisation of the Citizen' by Niels Aakerstroem Andersen, Professor, CBS Copenhagen
- 15.00 - 15.30 Coffee break
- 15.30 - 17.00 Parallel sessions A
- 17.15 - 18.15 'In a different voice'
by Kjersti Ericsson, Professor, Oslo University, Norway
- 18.45 - 19.45 Dinner
- 20.00 - 22.00 Two parallel cultural presentations followed by open debate:
1. TV-Glad, television program about discrimination and mobbing: "Work it out"
2. 'Theatre of the Soul' by the Theatre group Billedspor

Friday April 3.

- 08:00 - Registration
- 08:30 - 09:30 'Inclusive Research with People with Intellectual Disabilities: Progress and Pitfalls?'
by Jan Walmsley, Visiting Professor, Open University, United Kingdom
- 09:30 - 11:00 Poster presentation included coffee and tea
- 11:00 - 12:30 Parallel sessions B
- 12:30 - 13:30 Lunch
- 13:45 - 14:45 'One must always try to be as radical as reality itself: imagining, knowing and changing disability'
by Tom Shakespeare, Dr., freelance, United Kingdom
- 14:45 - 15.15 Coffee/tea break
- 15:15 - 17:15 Parallel sessions C
- 17:30 - 18:15 NNDR Annual Meeting
General Assembly/Biannual meeting
- 19:30- Conference dinner, music and dance at Nyborg Strand

Saturday April 4.

09:00 - 10:30 Parallel sessions D

10:30 - 11:00 Coffee/tea break

11:00 - 12:30 'Challenging Positions in Disability Research -
normativity, knowledge and praxis
by Kjeld Høgsbro, Professor, Aalborg University

12.30 - 13:30 Good Bye, sandwiches and looking forward to next conference 2011 in Iceland